

Town & Country to open new North Fork office in Greenport

February 27, 2018

Independent East End powerhouse Town & Country Real Estate will open a new office in the North Fork town of Greenport. The Front Street property is currently being renovated and the brokerage will hire new agents to staff it. Established in 2005, Town & Country now has more than 160 agents and seven other offices across the South Fork, Shelter Island and North Fork.

“Greenport is a popular hub on the North Fork,” CEO Judi Desiderio told Patch. “From the carousel to the great shops and award-winning restaurants, there’s so much to do there.”
