

The TOWN & COUNTRY

Difference

JUDI DESIDERIO, JANET HUMMEL AND NANCY MCGANN have successfully guided their clients and customers through the turbulent times of the 1987 stock market crash and two other recessionary markets. Such depth of experience and market knowledge is exactly what sellers, buyers and agents are looking for today. This scope, at the ownership level, is unparalleled at any other East End Real Estate company, and is raising the bar for all others.

The Hamptons and North Fork Real Estate markets are unlike any other. Today, more than ever, our clientele require and deserve industry professionals who have the experience and leadership support to navigate the current market conditions.

Experience and leadership cannot be bought or manufactured — it can only be earned.

And that's
