A 12,000-square-foot home with an indoor, heated half basketball court and an electric scoreboard is on the market in Quogue for $3.795 million.

The original owner bought a vacant lot and had the home custom built so he could have fun in it with his three children, said Patrick Galway, real estate agent with Town & Country Real Estate and listing agent for the home.

“It’s a fun property,” Galway said.

In addition to the basketball court, the home has an outdoor pool with bluestone decking and a pool house, a tennis court, a 12-seat movie theater, an outdoor fireplace, and an outdoor bar with an outdoor television screen.

“Everything is big and grand, but everything is tastefully done,” Galway said.

Inside, there are two master suites, a chef’s kitchen, a billiard room, fitness room and a high-speed elevator.

The home is located in a quiet, wooded area on the end of a cul-de-sac on 1-1/2 acres.
