Town & Country Announces New Team

Town & Country Real Estate agents Robert Tomich and Linda Kabot have partnered to capitalize on Ms. Kabot's zoning expertise and Mr. Tomich's sphere of influence.

Mr. Tomich is a broker with 15 years of experience and is the top producer at the agency's Southampton office. Ms. Kabot is a former Southampton Town councilwoman and supervisor.

In a statement, Town & Country called the Tomich-Kabot team exceptionally knowledgeable about the community and all its neighborhoods.

"Bob's strengths and know-how coupled with my comprehensive insight dovetail perfectly to create a powerful service-delivery team in the realm of real estate," Ms. Kabot said.

"Their approach to seamless real estate transactions comes down to three words: Experience, Connections, Results," Town & Country CEO Judi Desiderio said.
