Rick Murphy | March 26, 2019

Sheila Delaney joins Town & Country Real Estate's East Hampton office. She practiced as an attorney and ran an interior design business for over 20 years in New York City and East Hampton. Her rich combination of experience and expertise gives her real estate clients a meaningful advantage, whether they're purchasing, selling, or renting on the East End.

Originally from Scarsdale, NY, Delaney has spent summers in East Hampton since 1980. After living in Manhattan for 15 years, she moved to East Hampton full time, in 2007. She enjoys walking her dog Twiggy on Georgica Beach, practicing yoga, cycling, and enjoying the Hamptons' natural beauty throughout the seasons.
