

WILLIAM RAVEIS EXPANDING

January 16, 2025

William Raveis, the number one privately real estate company in the Northeast, Florida and South Carolina, announces a strategic partnership with Town & Country Real Estate, a luxury brokerage serving the East End of Long Island, New York since 2005.

The T&C offices will join William Raveis' growing network of over 140 offices and 4,500 agents from Maine to Florida. William Raveis, the Inman-awarded Top Brokerage in the U.S., is gaining a foothold within the Hamptons and The North Fork luxury real estate.

"We're delighted to welcome Town & Country to our family company," says William, "Bill" Raveis, Jr. "T&C's stellar reputation for luxury service resonates with clients in the Hamptons and will elsewhere in our footprint," adds co-presidents Chris Raveis.

This year, William Raveis celebrates 50 years in business, with Bill Raveis at the helm, sons Chris and Ryan Raveis as co-presidents, and strong management support, they are on a trajectory for growth, making company acquisitions in top luxury markets along the East Coast.

"Our trademark has always been our ability to pivot to the needs of buyers, sellers, and renters. This expansion through the Raveis footprint gives our associates the single best opportunity to grow their businesses and service their clients in a unique way bolstered by superior technology and support, says Town & Country CEO Judi Desiderio. “Which is why we’re excited to grow our business throughout the luxury Triangle—New York City, The Hamptons, Palm Beach, and Westchester County.”
