William Raveis unveils its 2025 Market Report for The Hamptons and North Fork, New York for real estate sales, listings and summer vacation rentals. William Raveis has received multiple awards from global experts at the Luxury Lifestyle Awards for excellence in luxury service.

The William Raveis Market Report provides a hyperlocal perspective for upscale towns, neighborhoods, and communities on the East End, Long Island, New York, U.S. Especially noteworthy are the detailed market statistics for The Hamptons and North Fork, with total number and sales volume for homes sold as well as median sale price year to date. The beautiful book also features active properties and vacation homes for the region. Across the U.S. East Coast, the family-owned company offers a streamlined luxury customer experience with Elite Concierge Services for real estate, mortgage, and insurance all under one roof. William Raveis, founder and Chairman and sons, Chris and Ryan Raveis as co-Presidents, have created a unique business model, unmatched by other real estate brokerages.

Key to the family company's success for over fifty years is being in all the destinations sought after by high-profile clients. The company footprint extends thousands of miles, from Maine to Florida, with over 4,500 real estate agents and 140+ offices to help with buying, selling, and securing vacation homes in exclusive East Coast cities and towns. Partnering with an award-winning luxury brokerage is a smart move. William "Bill" Raveis explains their mindset, "Our clients travel extensively, so naturally we are in all the top places like Boston, Greenwich, Hilton Head, New York City, Naples, Nantucket, Palm Beach, Port Royal, The Hamptons, North Fork." In fact, William Raveis' ads feature, "We are where you travel and live" with their signage strategically positioned within the Palm Beach International Airport in Florida, and Westchester Airport outside New York City.

Finally, William Raveis advanced technology helps clients with decision making. Whether purchasing or selling a home, the company's exclusive forecasting tools and real-time analytics are available for the Northeast, Florida, and South Carolina.
